SPECIAL WAR PROGRAM

During the war period the College of Business Administration of Boston College is following an accelerated program of three semesters a year.

Entrance and Scholarship Examinations will be held in January, May and August for new Freshman classes which will be admitted on the following dates:

February 5, 1945

June 11, 1945

September 10, 1945

This Bulletin is not the complete catalogue of the College of Business Administration as is customarily issued each year. In cooperation with the national effort to conserve paper, we are editing this supplement, noting changes in Faculty, Calendar and Courses. VETERANS AT BOSTON COLLEGE

Boston College is offering every inducement to the Veteran to continue his education and successfully complete it at the earliest possible time consonant with good scholarship. Every consideration will be given to courses taken in the Army and Navy Schools and through the Armed Forces Institute. Basic Military Training and informal educational experience gathered while in the service will be evaluated according to the recommendations set down and approved by national educational associations.

A special educational advisor has been appointed to care for the individual problems of each veteran. The veteran is advised to consult him whenever he wishes.

Courses have been inaugurated to give the veteran a brief review of matter required for advanced courses or to acquaint him with the basic requirements for a successful completion of his studies.

Veterans will be admitted to these courses whenever they apply and every effort will be made to prepare them for entrance at the next opening date. Due to the accelerated program these opening dates occur frequently during the year.

For further information, write or phone the Dean, Boston College, College of Business Administration, Chestnut Hill 67, Massachusetts, BIGelow 1480.

ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS

Entrance requirements are administered by the Committee on Admissions. Application for admission to the College of Business Administration must be filed with the Registrar at least one week before the date of Entrance Examinations.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration must present written evidence that fifteen (15) units of work have been completed in an approved secondary school. These units must be distributed over the following subjects: English, Algebra, Plane Geometry, United States History and other subjects.

In addition to satisfying the general unit requirements all applicants must receive passing grades in the Boston College Entrance Examinations. Examinations are given in the following subjects: Algebra, Plane Geometry, English, United States History, Aptitude Test. These examinations will be given in January, June and August.
